Definition of persons eligible to be tenants of the allotments gardens is as follows:

“Allotments are provided for any resident, over the age of 18, within Ringwood Town Council’s boundaries, subject to availability. A chronological waiting list will be kept and allotments will only be let to residents, over the age of 18, of neighbouring parishes if there are no suitable residents within the Ringwood Town Council boundaries on the list. Whilst there is a waiting list, a tenant may not be allocated more than only one allotment plot, in most cases they will be half the original size”
