TOWN COUNCIL*26th September 2018*Neighbourhood Planning*1. Introduction and reason why decision required

- 1.1 At its meeting on 3rd August the Planning, Town & Environment Committee rejected a proposed recommendation that this Council promote a Neighbourhood Plan for Ringwood (minute ref. no. P/5527). In the absence of any further or counter proposal, there is therefore no recommendation on the subject for councillors who are not members of that committee to consider.
- 1.2 Given the importance of Neighbourhood Planning, officers need guidance from the entire council membership on whether consideration should be given to it at this time or not.

2. Background information, options, impact assessment and risks

- 2.1 Officers anticipate that a proposal for preparatory steps will be made and seconded at the meeting. If that proposal is rejected, officers will regard that rejection as a decision that no such steps are to be taken without the requirement for any further resolution to that effect.
- 2.2 Whatever Council decides will stand unless and until reversed or altered by a later decision but no motion to that effect could be made for six months at least (other than in accordance with the special procedures set out in Standing Order 44).
- 2.3 As always, any member who considers that discussion on this subject is unnecessary or inappropriate is free to propose that Council proceed to the next item of business.

3. Issue for decision

Whether to approve the actions regarding Neighbourhood Planning that are proposed at the meeting or definitively preclude any such actions at this time.

TOWN COUNCIL*26th September 2018*Standing Orders*1. Introduction and reason why decision required

- 1.1 At its meeting on 27th June the Council deferred consideration of revised draft Standing Orders and formed a working party to consider them in the meanwhile (see minute ref. C/6170).
- 1.2 NALC has recommended two minor changes and the working party has suggested others. The resulting revised draft is circulated with this note.

2. Background information, options, impact assessment and risks

- 2.1 The revised draft shows as “tracked changes” in red the alterations proposed from the previous draft produced for the meeting on 27th June. (The comments attached to that previous draft have been removed for the sake of clarity.)
- 2.2 Most changes are self-explanatory. However, the working party members wish to draw particular attention to draft S/O 5f. This will prevent any person from serving more than two terms of office as Chairman consecutively (unless the Council suspends this Standing Order specifically to permit this).
- 2.3 The working party members believe that re-writing the Council’s Scheme of Delegation may assist in clarifying further how the Council operates. Officers are working on this and members will be asked to consider the revised document at a meeting soon.

3. Issue for decision and any recommendationWhether to approve the revised draft Standing Orders.[RECOMMENDATION: Officers and the working party members recommend approval of the draft.]

STANDING ORDERS

1. Rules of debate at meetings

Explanatory note: Rules of debate apply to all business conducted at any type of meeting except to the extent that the chairman allows them to be relaxed. Such business may include routine formalities (e.g approving the minutes of a previous meeting), receiving reports from officers (which may require a decision from councillors and include one or more suggestions or recommendations as to how the item be disposed of), receiving information from councillors or others (about which no decision can be made) and motions proposed by members. The procedures by which agendas for meetings are compiled and councillors can secure the inclusion of motions are contained in standing orders 5, 9 and 15.

- a Motions~~Items~~ on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear in the agenda unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b A proposal or motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a proposal or motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a proposal or motion. It shall not negate the proposal or motion.
- f If an amendment to the original proposal or motion is carried, the original proposal or motion becomes the substantive proposal or motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early-verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his or her own proposal or motion if agreed by the meeting. If a proposal or motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.

i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive proposal or motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman of the meeting.

j Subject to standing order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.

k One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.

l A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive proposal or motion.

~~m The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.~~

~~m~~ Where a series of amendments to an original proposal or motion are carried, the mover of the original proposal or motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate of the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive proposal or motion immediately before it is put to the vote.

~~en~~ Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a proposal or motion except:

- i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
- ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the proposal or motion has been amended since he last spoke;
- iii. to make a point of order;
- iv. to give a personal explanation; or
- v. to exercise a right of reply.

~~eo~~ During the debate on a proposal or motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he or she considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he or she is concerned by.

~~ep~~ A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his or her decision shall be final.

~~eq~~ When a proposal or motion is under debate, no other proposal or motion shall be moved except:

- i. to amend the proposal or motion;
- ii. to proceed to the next business;
- iii. to adjourn the debate;
- iv. to put the proposal or motion to a vote;
- v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;

- vii. to exclude the public and press;
- viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
- ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory or legal requirements.

s Before an original or substantive proposal or motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion/atter has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the proposal or motion under debate has exercised or waived his or her right of reply.

t Excluding motions moved under standing order 1(rq), the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the proposal or motion under discussion and shall not exceed 5 minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.
