STANDING ORDERS

1. Rules of debate at meetings

Explanatory note: Rules of debate apply to all business conducted at any type of meeting except to the extent that the chairman allows them to be relaxed. Such business may include routine formalities (e.g approving the minutes of a previous meeting), receiving reports from officers (which may require a decision from councillors and include one or more suggestions or recommendations as to how the item be disposed of), receiving information from councillors or others (about which no decision can be made) and motions proposed by members. The procedures by which agendas for meetings are compiled and councillors can secure the inclusion of motions are contained in standing orders 5, 9 and 15.

- a Items on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear in the agenda unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b A proposal or motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a proposal or motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a proposal or motion. It shall not negate the proposal or motion.
- f If an amendment to the original proposal or motion is carried, the original proposal or motion becomes the substantive proposal or motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his or her own proposal or motion if agreed by the meeting. If a proposal or motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.

- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive proposal or motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- j Subject to standing order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- k One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- l A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive proposal or motion.
- m Where a series of amendments to an original proposal or motion are carried, the mover of the original proposal or motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate of the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive proposal or motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
- n Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a proposal or motion except:
 - i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
 - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the proposal or motion has been amended since he last spoke;
 - iii. to make a point of order;
 - iv. to give a personal explanation; or
 - v. to exercise a right of reply.

A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he or she considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he or she is concerned by.
- p A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his or her decision shall be final.
- q When a proposal or motion is under debate, no other proposal or motion shall be moved except:
 - i. to amend the proposal or motion;
 - ii. to proceed to the next business;
 - iii. to adjourn the debate;
 - iv. to put the proposal or motion to a vote;
 - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;

- vii. to exclude the public and press;
 - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
 - ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory or legal requirements.
- s Before an original or substantive proposal or motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the matter has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the proposal or motion under debate has exercised or waived his or her right of reply.
- t Excluding motions moved under standing order 1(q), the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the proposal or motion under discussion and shall not exceed 5 minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.

2. Disorderly conduct at meetings

- a No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
